To assist in the execution of the above responsibilities, the Board has in place two Board Committees comprising an Audit and Risk Management Committee and a Remuneration and Nomination Committee.

5.2 Structure of the Board

- (a) The number of Directors must not be less than 3 (clause 23.1 of the Company's Constitution and section 201A(2) of the Corporations Act). On the date that this charter was adopted, there were 6 Directors of the Company.
- (b) With the exception of the Chief Executive Officer, a Director may not hold office for more than three years or beyond the third annual general meeting following his or her appointment (whichever is the longer period) without submitting himself or herself for re election (clause 23.7 of the Constitution and ASX Listing Rule 14.4).

- (c) The Board should at all times comprise a minimum of 1 independent Director and 2 non-executive directors, to ensure that the Company is run in its own best interests and, accordingly, in the best interests of Shareholders.

In assessing the independence of Directors, the Board will apply the definitions contained in the ASX Corporate Governance Council, 'Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations' (3rd Edition) as set out in Schedule 1.

A candidate for election as a Director must disclose to the Company all interests, positions, associations and relationships that may bear on his or her independence.

If there is a change in a non-executive Director's interests, positions, associations or relationships that could bear on his or her independence, the non-executive Director must inform the Remuneration and Nomination Committee at the earliest opportunity.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will regularly assess the independence of each non-executive Director, which will take place at least annually at or around the time that the Remuneration and Nomination Committee considers candidates for election to the Board.
